NEWSLETTER Friday 16th March 2018

It has been such an exciting week, we have had author Robin Stevens in school and she has been signing her book for the children and talking about her other books. We have been tweeting lots of pictures and she was fab and the children had a great time meeting her.

In case you missed it we also had Pi Day this week (not the pie you eat) the mathematical Pi, which was March 14th (anyone know why?) because Pi is 3.14 and March is the 3rd month and it is the 14th day—simple! Check out Year 6 singing their Pi song on twitter, it's really catchy and very educational too.

We have also been learning lots of 'science stuff' on World Science Day on Thursday, it was fantastic, the children were investigating and experimenting and hypothesising and predicting. There was a whole lot of learning going on. I think that the children will need a well deserved few days off over the weekend, although I'm sure lots of the children will be wanting to tell you all about what they have been learning this week. Enjoy the weekend, see you Monday.
Miss E McLoughlin (Acting Headteacher).

Sports News

On Wednesday morning at 8am our 10 triathletes were in the swimming pool again practising for their Triathlon in April. Mr Dickinson & Mr Gardiner are in the pool each Wednesday morning training the swimmers with stamina and resilience, they took their bikes out onto the muddy terrain on Thursday, they did really as it was tough riding conditions.

SPORTS RELIEF on Wednesday 21st March, all children can come into school dressed as their Sporting HERO— and it would be great to know why they have chosen them as their hero. (Mr Dickinson)
