Dear Malvern Families,

As many of you will be aware, on Sunday... it's coming home! 🦁🦁🦁⚽🇬🇧

With lots of us (including many pupils) staying up beyond our usual bedtime to enjoy the final of Euro 2020, we have made the decision to relax the school day start time on Monday. Pupils may arrive at school up to 10:30am without receiving a late mark. Breakfast club will be open as usual and classroom doors will still be opened at their usual time. It has been 55 years since England reached the final of a major football tournament. Let's hope our pupils get to create memories to treasure and talk about for many years to come!

Over the weekend, we invite our community to come together to share in the build up and preparations for the big game. How will you be showing your support? Let us know via our school Twitter page, @malvernprimary. Let's make this a celebration to remember!

Kind regards,

Mr James

Non-Uniform Day 3

Friday 16th July

CAKE SALE

On Friday 16th July, pupils are invited to attend school wearing their own clothes. Pupils are asked to bring to school some pre-packaged baked goods or individually wrapped biscuit bars for sale during Malfest. If possible, please choose items that are unlikely to melt during the hot weather anticipated over the next couple of weeks.

We are incredibly grateful for your continued support of our school.

Marvellous Malvern Big Birthday Bash!

To celebrate the birthdays of all members of our school community, school took part in a 'Marvellous Malvern' birthday party today. It has been a real delight to take in the excited atmosphere around school. Throughout the day, pupils have enjoyed party games, disco-dancing and eating party food. There was even an extra special surprise... a big, birthday inflatable party including basketball, giant darts and an obstacle course! All children received a small birthday gift as a way of remembering their special day. Special thanks to Mrs. Costello for preparing a birthday cake for each class. Thanks must also go to our EYFS team. Although our reception children are isolating today, they didn't miss out on the fun. The team arranged a variety of fun games and activities so that children could celebrate at home. What a wonderful day we've all enjoyed!
