Dear Malvern Families,

As we approach our last week of the school year, I am filled with hope and optimism for the future. Despite the tumultuous nature of this academic year, our community connection has deepened and we are proud of the wonderful relationships we share with our families. As a school, we are very grateful for the support of our community in realising our ambitions. I am thoroughly looking forward to Malfest and I'm certain that the day will be a special one for all in attendance.

Kind regards,

Mr James
