

Reader of the Week

Welcome! Congratulations to all of our recent Readers of the Week. Over the last two weeks, bookworms have included: Connie and Lily S. from 1LM; Maddison and Lewie from 1CB; Lucas and Oliver from 2JOB; Itanas from 3NM; Anais and Jessica from 4PK; Scarlett from 5IP; Samuel from 5ND and Tillie from 6JB. All children received a special bookmark and sticker – and a mention in this newsletter!

'There's a Ghost in this House': Oliver Jeffer's new book was published on October 5th this year and is for age 3+. The Waterstone's website says: 'A captivating new picture book with interactive transparent pages, from world-renowned artist Oliver Jeffers. Hello, come in. Maybe you can help me? A young girl lives in a haunted house, but has never seen a ghost. Are they white with holes for eyes? Are they hard to see? She'd love to know! Step inside and turn the transparent pages to help her on an entertaining ghost hunt, from behind the sofa, right up to the attic. With lots of friendly ghost surprises and incredible mixed media illustrations, this unique and funny book will entertain young readers over and over again.' Teachers: I've ordered a copy – so please let me know if you'd like share it with the children – or if you'd like to have a look at it yourselves.

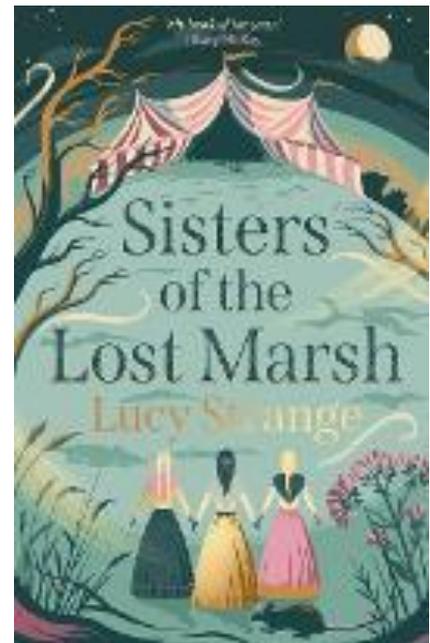

'You Can !' by Alexandra Strick & Steve Antony:

This fab book was published on October 7th and is for readers aged 5+. The Waterstone's website says: 'YOU CAN...be brave, challenge yourself, overcome your fears, be kind, be brilliant...be YOU! Come on an amazing journey with 14 children as they grow from birth to 18 years old, learning new skills, exploring new worlds, standing up for their own and others' rights - and following their dreams. Created with real children, who sent messages of empathy, reassurance and hope, You Can! will inspire young people of all ages to be empowered and believe in themselves. This is a ground-breaking book from author and co-founder of Inclusive Minds, Alexandra Strick - with an astonishing, visual narrative by international picture book star, Steve Antony.'

'Sisters of the Lost Marsh' by Lucy Strange:

The Chicken House Books' website says: 'From the Waterstone's Prize-shortlisted author of Our Castle by the Sea, comes a gorgeously gothic story, perfect for fans of Emma Carroll and Frances Hardinge. On a poor farm surrounded by marshlands, six sisters - Grace, Willa, Freya, and triplets Deedee, Darcy, and Dolly - live in fear of their father. Their beloved grandmother tries to protect them, but the future seems bleak. When the Full Moon Fayre makes a rare visit to Hollow-in-the-Marsh, the girls slip out to see the famous Shadow Man, an enigmatic puppeteer. Afterwards, oldest sister Grace is missing. Can Willa save her sister from one fate, and yet outrun her own?' This book is for age 9+ and was published on November 4th.

Please read aloud to the children each day. Happy Reading.....Paul (22/11/21)
