

Reader of the Week

Welcome! Last week's Readers of the Week included: Michael from 1LM, Elsie from 1CB, Luca from 2JOB, Noah from 2CW, Theo from 3NM, Joshua from 4PK, Charlie from 5ND, George from 6JH and Tillie from 6JB. Congratulations to all!

Year Five Book Club: The happy readers (below) are all members of our Year Five Book Club. The children are reading 'Shadowghast' by Thomas Taylor – and if their first book club meeting was anything to go by, it's going to be a popular choice. As well as a message (featured last week), Thomas was also kind enough to send some posters and other goodies. Thanks to Thomas. Y5 Book Club meets on Tuesday lunch times in 4PK – and includes hot chocolate and biscuits. Adults also welcome!

Year Six Book Club: At their first meeting last week, members of our Year Six Book Club started reading Lev Grossman's 'The Silver Arrow'. Andrea Reece at the website www.lovereading4kids.co.uk says: 'If you like books in which ordinary children suddenly have wonderful magical adventures and, in the process, realise just how much adults don't know, or choose to pretend isn't real, then you will love The Silver Arrow. Eleven-year-old Kate and her younger brother Tom are gifted an adventure by their rich and totally irresponsible Uncle Herbert. It's Kate's mum who labels him irresponsible, Kate and Tom have never even met him until he turns up on Kate's birthday with an amazing present – a steam locomotive. That night the children climb on board, staying on even as the train starts to move and Uncle Herbert advises them they really should think about jumping off – and there begins the best adventure you could ever hope to have....' Y6 Book Club – Thursday lunch times in 4PK – all adults welcome!

'Yapping Away' by Joshua Seigal: This is a September book of the month on www.lovereading4kids.co.uk The website says: 'The opening poem in Joshua Seigal's sparkling new collection invites readers to 'fill the world with words', and he does a very good job of doing just that in poems that represent his audience's world perfectly. Here are poems about classrooms, playtime, grandparents, chocolate biscuits – all just right to read aloud and deliciously easy to remember.' It was published on 19/8/21 and is for age 3+. I've ordered a copy. Please let me know if you'd like to have a look.

Get Involved: If you have any recommendations, book news, photos, thoughts, comments or ideas, please get in touch. Contributions from all members of our school community are welcomed and encouraged.

Please read aloud to the children each day. Happy Reading.....Paul (20/9/21)
