Dear Malvern Families,

Following the success of first ever 'Social Action Sunday', we look forward to welcoming members of our community into school this weekend for our second day of social action. If you are able to come along, please use the link below to sign up. While not essential, it helps us prepare the catering on the day.

Hopefully, the weather will be kind to us and we can once again come together to further improve our school grounds.

Have a wonderful weekend!

Mr James

Headteacher

Malvern Racers

Last Sunday, a group of children from Malvern took on the Liverpool Spring Kids 1K race at Sefton Park to raise much needed funds for Claire House Children's Hospice. We are exceptionally proud of every pupil who took part. They helped to raise an incredible £842. There is still time to support this fantastic cause and you can donate using this link: <https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/MalvernRacers>

Animal Farm Production

On the evening of Thursday 28th April, members of our Drama & Theatre Club went to Liverpool's Playhouse Theatre to see an amazing stage adaptation of George Orwell's 'Animal Farm'. Produced by the Children's Theatre Partnership and directed by Robert Icke, the play combined captivating music and cinematic staging with the use of beautifully detailed life-size puppets. Malvern children enjoyed an inspiring evening of thrilling live theatre and, as usual, their behaviour was exemplary. Mr. Kynaston received an email from the theatre saying: 'It was an absolute pleasure to be able to welcome you all back to the Playhouse. Malvern's Drama & Theatre Club is one of our favourite groups, and we're delighted you all enjoyed the production.'

Malvern @ Finch Farm

This week, our boys' football team were selected to represent Knowsley at Everton Academy's Football Final. During the event, our boys competed against teams from across Merseyside and proved that they are outstanding ambassadors for Malvern.

Reception & Year 1 Bikeability

Pupils in Reception and Year 1 have thoroughly enjoyed their Bikeability training sessions this week. The purpose of this training is to ensure that pupils gain the confidence required to ride a bike with independence and safety.

HOT Raffle Ticket Reward

This week, our 'Here on Time' winners enjoyed a fantastic visit to the Showcase Cinema as a reward for their excellent punctuality. Remember to be at school on time to be in with a chance of earning your raffle ticket for next special reward at the end of term.

Ibbotson House Take on the Wall

Children in Ibbotson House had a wonderful day rising to the challenge of their house prize. It was brilliant to see pupils supporting each other to grow resilience and courage.

Star of the Week

Random Acts of KINDNESS

This week, our Kindness Award winner is Harry in Year 5. Harry was nominated by his friend Anthony who said, "Harry is an amazing friend. He is so kind and caring. He always looks out for others when they need support." Well done Harry - we completely agree with Anthony and are very proud to say that you belong to Malvern.

Mrs. Webber's Musician of the Week...

Not only is Grace an amazing musician, but she is also a wonderful music-teacher! This week, the children were working in ensemble-groups, and Grace was so kind, helping the other people in her group. She always tries her best!

Mr Arnold's Sports Person of the Week...

This week, Maisie demonstrated real grit and determination during our athletics club. Despite fierce competition, Maisie maintained her resilience and was gracious in both victory and defeat. This is exactly the conduct we aspire to at Malvern. Well done, Maisie!
