

NEW OUT THIS MONTH

KSI @ Malvern Reads ...

Monthly newsletter for parents (Feb 23)

Brilliant picture books to share

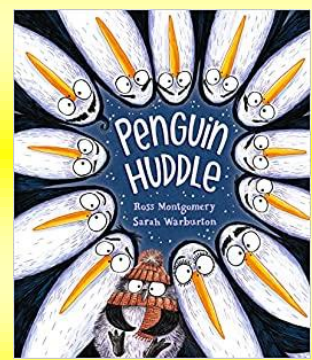

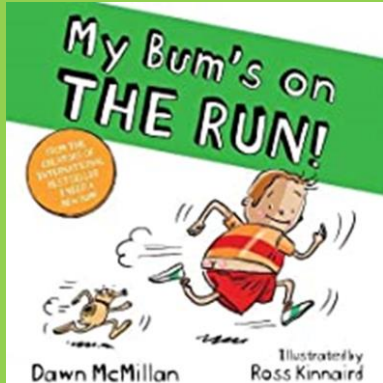

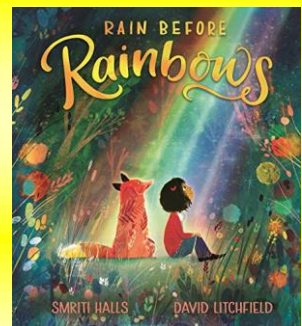

In a world where only one colour is allowed, will he be brave enough to tell his dad? And will they be able to defy the rules and create a world where EVERY colour is welcome?

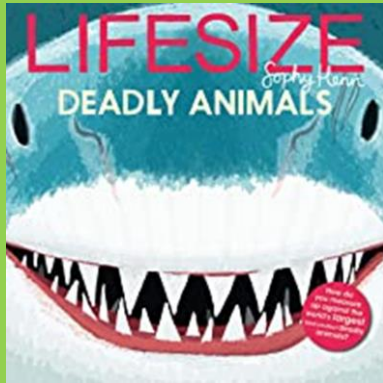

A beautiful celebration of being yourself and living in ALL the colours of the rainbow, from debut author Robert Tregoning and illustrator Stef Murphy.

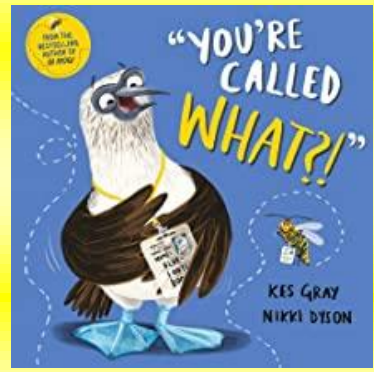

A gorgeous picture book about how there is light after darkness. A story of resilience, friendship and hope this book follows the journey of a girl and fox through darkness and dreams to morning light.

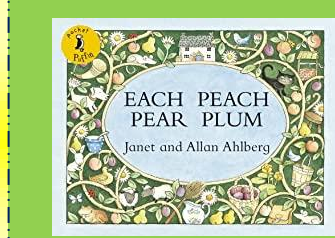

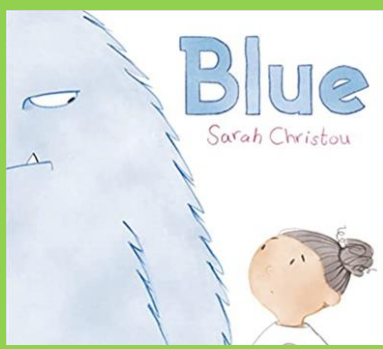

One night there is a freezing gale and the next morning the penguins are stuck in their huddle. Nobody in the Antarctic can work out how to unstick them. But, the smallest penguin has an idea... They must adventure out of their snowy home to solve their puzzle. A celebration of friendship, community and helping those in trouble.

A rip-roaringly funny, tongue twisting story full of weird and wonderful real creatures and facts that will amaze. Great fun

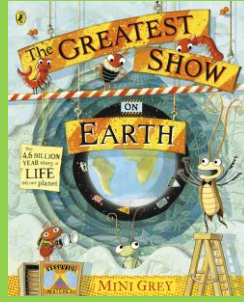

Oldie but Goodie

An absolute classic loved by many including my family. Each page encourages young children to delve in and then search for the next fairy tale character. One I always gift to new families and reread on multiple occasions.

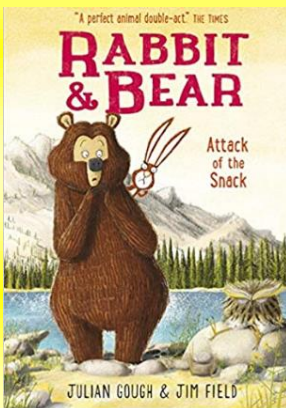

This book is a whistle stop tour of the whole history of the Earth. From the birth of the planet, to the age of bacteria through the era of dinosaurs to the moment of people. It is narrated by friendly insects and has lively illustrations so educates and entertains at the same time.

Non Fiction

Great reads to expand minds

Books for moving on

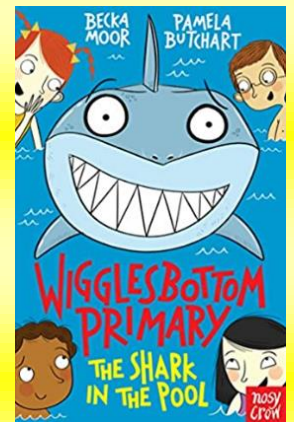

This is a brilliantly funny story of a rabbit and a bear whose happy summer day is interrupted by a Mysterious Thing

This is ideal for readers moving on from picture books.

These books are laugh-out-loud school based stories. This is one of a whole series with three stories in each, illustrated, book. Great for readers moving on with their reading.

Is there a shark in the local swimming pool? Are there dinosaur bones buried in the playground? What are the class going to do?

Find out with 2F at Wigglesbottom Primary.

Aspirational Read

Peanut's dad has gone missing, and she's stuck in a boring new school. One day she finds a unique pencil turbo-charged with special powers. Suddenly she's pulled into a world packed with more colour, creativity, excitement and danger than she could ever have imagined. And maybe she might be able to find out what happened to her dad. From the famous illustrator artist Rob Biddulph.

