Dear Malvern Families,

I hope this message finds you all in good spirits. As we reflect on the success of last year's Malfest, it fills me with immense pride to announce that plans are in place for an even more spectacular event this year. Our previous Malfest events have truly been days to remember, with the sun shining, live music filling the air and a remarkable sense of community connection permeating the atmosphere.

To help further promote our event, we have created a dedicated 'Malfest' page on Facebook. On the page, we share Malfest memories and direct people to Eventbrite where they can purchase tickets for the event. If you are on social media, please follow, like and share our page with all of your friends and family.

I extend my sincere gratitude to all those who are tirelessly coordinating raffle prizes, sponsorships and stalls for this year's festivities. It is through your unwavering support and dedication that we can bring this extraordinary celebration to life.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, 8th July and help us come together once again - united as a community - to create a day filled with smiles, laughter and cherished memories. With each passing year, we aspire to make Malfest bigger and better than ever before. I have no doubt that this year's event will surpass all expectations, further strengthening the bonds that make our school community truly special.

Thank you for your continued support, and I look forward to seeing you all at Malfest!

Have a wonderful weekend!

Mr. James
