

Big Idea	Autumn Term Birthday/Christmas	Spring Term Chinese New Year	Spring Term Easter
Making Sense of Life's Experiences Stories and People	Read the story 'Kipper's Christmas Eve.' Read the story 'Kipper's Birthday'	Read the Story 'Peppa's Chinese New Year.'	Read the Story 'The First Egg Hunt.'
Words and Beyond Celebration and expression of spirituality	To learn language related to celebrating Christmas and birthdays. Learn how I celebrate.	To learn language related to the festival of Chinese New Year. Recognise people celebrate in different ways.	To learn language related to the festival of Easter / New Life. Understand how I and others celebrate in different ways.
Continuity, change and Diversity Lifestyle, rights and responsibilities	Explore: Diva lamps, Mendi patterns and Indian food. Explore: giving and receiving gifts, making cards and eating a Christmas lunch	Explore: Chinese dances, Chinese lanterns and dragons. Eating Chinese food.	Explore: New life.
Big Question	To understand how I celebrate.	Do all people celebrate the same way?	How do I celebrate Easter? Is this the same as my friends?
Vocabulary	Celebrate, party, food, family, clean and tidy, presents, Christmas, decorate, birthday and cake.	Colour, red, yellow, pink, green, orange, purple, blue, white, dragon and lantern.	Easter, egg, chocolate, family, delicious, clothes.

R.E and World Views Reception

Big Idea	Autumn Term Diwali /Christmas	Spring Term Chinese New Year	Spring Term Easter
Making Sense of Life's Experiences Stories and People	Read the story 'Rama and Sita' Read the story 'The Nativity'	Read the Story 'The Great Race.'	Read the Story 'The Easter Story'
Words and Beyond Celebration and expression of spirituality	To learn language related to the festival of Diwali. To learn language related to the festival of Christmas. Learn how Diwali and Christmas is celebrated and comment on differences.	To learn language related to the festival of Chinese New Year. Learn how Chinese New Year is Celebrated. Comparing this to other festivals.	To learn language related to the festival of Easter / New Life. Learn how Easter is Celebrated comparing to other festivals.
Continuity, change and Diversity Lifestyle, rights and responsibilities	Explore: Diva lamps, Mendi patterns and Indian food. Explore: giving and receiving gifts, making cards and eating a Christmas lunch	Explore: Chinese dances, Chinese lanterns and dragons. Eating Chinese food.	Explore: New life.
Big Question	Can I use a range of vocabulary to explain how Diwali and Christmas are celebrated. Are there any differences?	Can I use a range of vocabulary to explain how is Chinese New Year Celebrated? Can I compare this to other festivals?	Can I use a range of vocabulary to explain how is Easter celebrated? Are all festivals celebrated in the same way?
Vocabulary	Diwali, celebration, festival, light, rangoli, Rama, Sita, Diva light/lamp, party, jewellery, mendhi patterns, fireworks, temple. Christmas, Mary, Joseph, Jesus, Bethlehem, Wise Men, Innkeeper, angel, camel, donkey, stable	Chinese New Year, dragon, firecracker, red, gold, animals from story, fortune cookies. Lion, chopsticks. red envelope (money), Lantern	Easter, Jesus. new life, chicks / hen, lambs / sheep, daffodils, chocolate eggs, rabbit / bunny, spring, hot cross buns

R.E and World Views Year 1

Big Idea	Autumn Term (Christianity)	Spring Term (Christianity)	Summer Term (Hinduism)
Making Sense of Life's Experiences Stories and People	What is the Nativity? The Nativity Story is a special narrative in Christian faith because it recounts the birth of Christ.	What is the Easter story? Why did Jesus die and rise again from death?	Who is Rama to Hindus? Stories about Rama such as Rama's exile and return give us a better understanding of who they were and their importance to Hindus.
Words and Beyond Celebration and expression of spirituality	Why is Christmas important to Christians? Christians celebrate Christmas to show their gratitude to God, to remember the birth of Jesus Christ by giving gifts, worshipping him and thinking of the poor and less fortunate.	Why is Easter important to Christians? Easter represents a time of new beginnings and the resurrection/rebirth of Jesus Christ.	Who is Krishna to Hindus? Stories about Krishna such as the childhood of Krishna give us a better understanding of who they were and their importance to Hindus.
Continuity, change and Diversity Lifestyle, rights and responsibilities	How do Christians celebrate the birth of Christ? Christians celebrate in diverse ways including: worship (with others or alone), attending Church, singing, sending cards and gifts. They read and share stories from their Holy Book; The Bible.	How do Christians celebrate the birth of Christ? Christians celebrate in diverse ways including: worship (with others or alone), attending Church, singing, sharing cards, Easter eggs and other gifts. They read and share stories from their Holy Book; The Bible.	What is Diwali? Diwali (Divali) is a festival of new beginnings and a celebration of the triumph of good (light) over evil (darkness). It is also known as the festival of light.
The Big Picture Beliefs and Ideas	Who is God and why is he important to Christians? God is the Father who loves, cares, has authority and is Creator. He cares for the world and expects people to care for the world.	Why is Jesus special for Christians? Jesus is the son of God. God is the Father who loves, cares, has authority and is creator. He cares for the world and expects people to care for the world.	What does Puja (worship) look like at home and in temples? Puja, also spelled poja or poojah, ranges from brief daily rites in the home to elaborate temple rituals. In its simplest form, puja usually consists of making an offering of flowers or fruit to an image of a god.
A Good Life Ethics and relationships	What do Christians believe? Christians believe that everyone is important and of equal value. They believe in love and forgiveness.	What are Jesus' teachings? Jesus teaches love and forgiveness; Christians try to follow his example in their own lives.	What is Ahimsa? Ahimsa is the idea of non-violence. Most Hindus believe that all living things are sacred because they are part of God. Many Hindus believe being non-violent shows respect for all life, human, animal and vegetable.
Influence, community, culture and power. Community and Global Issues	What is a Church? What does a traditional church look like? What happens in a church?	Who might we find in a Church? The Church is a building but more importantly, a group of believers. Some people have specific roles in the Church. (e.g. minister, priest, elder).	What is a Mandir? A Mandir is a type of temple that Hindus use to worship and give offerings to their many Gods. It is the Hindu equivalent of a church.
Big Question	What is Christmas about for Christians?	What is Easter about for Christians?	How do Hindus worship their Gods?
Vocabulary	Christianity, Christians, Nativity, Jesus Christ, Christmas, Holy book (the Bible), God (creator), love, forgiveness, equal, tradition(al), Church	Christianity, Christians, Easter, Jesus Christ, resurrection, rebirth, Holy book (the Bible), God (creator), care, love, forgiveness, Church, minister, priest, elder	Hinduism, Hindus, Rama, Krishna, Diwali (Divali), festival, celebration, Puja (poja or poojah), temple, Ahimsa,

R.E and World Views Year 2

Big Idea	Autumn Term (Christianity)	Spring Term (Hinduism)	Summer Term (Sikhism)
Making Sense of Life's Experiences Stories and People	Why did Jesus tell stories? Jesus used stories to spread his word and the message of God. His disciples also helped to spread this message too.	Who is Shiva to Hindus? Why is Shiva important to Hindus and make links to prior learning about Rama and Krishna.	Who is Guru Nanak to Sikhs? Guru Nanak, also referred to as Baba Nanak ('father Nanak'), was the founder of Sikhism and is the first of the ten Sikh Gurus. Use stories about him to find out more about him.
Words and Beyond Celebration and expression of spirituality	What do Christians celebrate? Explore different Christian celebrations; for example, baptisms, marriage, harvest etc...	Why is Diwali (Divali) important to Hindu? The festival of light is a five day celebration. It is believed that on this day Rama returned to his people after 14 years of exile during which he fought and won a battle against the demons and the demon king, Ravana.	What is a Gurburb? Gurburbs are festivals that are associated with the lives of the Gurus. They are happy occasions which are celebrated most enthusiastically by Sikhs.
Continuity, change and Diversity Lifestyle, rights and responsibilities	How do Christians worship Jesus and God? The Bible is used as a focus for worship; reading, listening and learning from the many stories. Christians worship both alone and together through activities such as prayer, singing, dancing.	What is Raksha Bandhan? Raksha Bandhan (Rakhi) is the Hindu festival that celebrates brotherhood and love. The word Raksha means protection, whilst Bandhan is the verb to tie. ... Rakhis are often shared between close friends.	What are the 5K's? Kesh (uncut hair), Kara (a steel bracelet), Kanga (a wooden comb), Kaccha - also spelt, Kachh, Kachera (cotton underwear), Kirpan (steel sword). Sikhs that wear these show devotion to the Gurus.
The Big Picture Beliefs and Ideas	What is the difference between Jesus and God? God is seen by Christians as the Father and creator of the world whereas as Jesus is seen as the Son of God; God's messenger. A human version of God who spreads his message.	Why is food important to Hindus? During festivals and celebrations Hindus come together to eat many different foods.	Who do Sikhs worship? Similar to Christians, Sikhs worship one God. They believe he is the creator of all things.
A Good Life Ethics and relationships	How do Christians try to live a good life? Christians try to follow the teachings of Jesus; for example loving God, loving your neighbours (other people) forgiving others and loving your enemies.	Do Hindus have one God or many Gods? Hindus show devotion to the God Brahman. Brahman is seen by Hindus as a Supreme Spirit in many forms. Brahman take the form of three key Gods (Trimuti): Brahma, the creator; Vishnu, the preserver; and Shiva, the destroyer. It is said that there could be as many as 33 millions different Gods.	Is everyone equal in Sikhism? Sikhs believe everyone is equal in before God. They try to treat everyone as equals as this is what their God wants them to do.
Influence, community, culture and power. Community and Global Issues	Are there different types of church? Different sections of Christianity may have different looking places of worship. Cathedrals are also places of Christian worship.	Is love and loyalty important for Hindu families? Love and loyalty is at the heart of Hinduism and extends to all members of the family e.g. respect for grandparents who often live with the family.	What is a Gurdwara? A Gurdwara is a place of worship where Sikhs go to worship the Gurus and God.
Big Question	How do Christians worship their God?	What Gods and festivals do Hindus celebrate?	Why are Gurus important to Sikhs?
Vocabulary	Christianity, Christians, Jesus, God, disciples, celebration, baptisms, marriage, harvest, Holy book (the Bible), prayer, Father of the World, Son of God, messenger, neighbour, Cathedrals	Hinduism, Hindus, Shiva, Rama, Krishna, Diwali (Divali), celebration, Ravana, Raksha Bandhan (Rakhi), festival, Brahman, Trimuti, Brahma, Vishnu, preserver, Shiva, love, loyalty	Sikhism, Sikhs, Guru, Guru Nanak, Gurburbs, Kesh, Kara, Kanga, Kaccha, Kirpan, God, equal (equality), Gurdwara,

R.E and World Views Year 3

Autumn Term (Christianity)		Spring Term (Sikhism)	Summer Term (Buddhism)
Making Sense of Life's Experiences Stories and People	What is a Parable? Use the Good Samaritan as an example.	What is Guru Granth Sahib? This is the holy scriptures or book of the Sikh religion. It contains, prayers, hymns and stories about Guru Nanak (founder) and the other 9 Gurus.	Who is Gotama Buddha? The Buddha (also known as Siddhattha Gotama or Siddhārtha Gautama or Buddha Shakyamuni) was a philosopher, mendicant, meditator, spiritual teacher, and religious leader who lived in Ancient India. His teaching of the middle way is important to Buddhists.
Words and Beyond Celebration and expression of spirituality	Why do Christians celebrate Palm Sunday? Palm Sunday is when Christians remember Jesus' final arrival in Jerusalem before his death. It represents the beginning of the Holy week of Easter and symbolises Christians belief that Jesus was a King. Palm Sunday also links to Passover in Judaism.	What are the most important Gurburbs? Gurburbs are festivals that can celebrate a Guri's birth and death dates or even when they became Gurus. The birthday of Guru Nanak, founder of Sikhism The birthday of Guru Gobind Singh, founder of the Khalsa (January) The martyrdom of Guru Arjan (June) The martyrdom of Guru Tegh Bahadur (November/December)	What is Songkran? The festival of Songkran takes place in the month of April and lasts for three days. In Thailand, Songkran falls at the time of the New Year. People go to temples and give presents such as food and flowers to the monks.
Continuity, change and Diversity Lifestyle, rights and responsibilities	What is a missionary? A person sent on a religious mission, especially one sent to promote Christianity in a foreign country.	What do the 5K's mean to Sikhs? Kesh (uncut hair) many different reasons—Kara (a steel bracelet) a link to the Guru and community—Kanga (a wooden comb) a clean body and mind—Kaccha 'Kachh, Kachera' (cotton underwear) modesty -Kirpan (steel sword) defence of beliefs	How do Buddhists dress? Symbols - monks/nun's wear robes, bowl, shaven heads, rosary (juzu) of 108 beads, used when chanting mantras etc.
The Big Picture Beliefs and Ideas	Who is Abraham to Christians? Use the story of Abraham and Sarah to show how Christians believe that staying true to God's word will be beneficial to their lives. That their relationship with God is a two way process. Abraham is also a seminal figure in Islam and Judaism.	Who is God to the Sikhs? There is only one God. God is without form, or gender. Everyone has direct access to God. Everyone is equal before God. A good life is lived as part of a community, by living honestly and caring for others.	Why are there different images of Buddha? Each statue/image features common physical attributes and poses that have different meanings. Buddha is most often represented in three positions: sitting, standing, or reclining. Different hand positions (Mudras) have different meanings.
A Good Life Ethics and relationships	What are the Ten Commandments? The Ten Commandments are a summary of the hundreds of laws found in the Old Testament. These commands are considered the basis for moral, spiritual, and ethical conduct by Jews and Christians alike.	Why do Sikhs serve others? Sikhs believe that they serve God by serving others. They believe in equality between others; in how they treat each other, share, sit, eat and worship.	How do Buddhists alleviate suffering? Buddhists believe in being kind and sympathetic to others, including animals, giving generously of their time, food abilities. They try to lead by example.
Influence, community, culture and power Community and Global Issues	What do Christian charities do? There are many different Christian charities around the world and with the money they raise they provide those in need with food supplies, shelter, medical and disaster relief.	What is the importance of family in the Sikh community? Sikhs use Gurdwaras as places of worship. Worshipping as a family is important and parents guide their children to follow the Sikh faith.	Who makes up the Buddhist community? The community consists of lay people, monks, nuns and priests.
Big Question	How do Christians share their message?	How do Sikhs show their love of God?	Do Buddhists believe in a God?
Vocabulary	Christianity, Christians, Parable, Samaritan, Palm Sunday, Easter, missionary, Abraham, Moses, commandments, charity	Sikhism, Sikhs, Guru Granth Sahib, Gurburbs, Kesh, Kara, Kanga, Kaccha, Kirpan, God, equal (equality), Gurwara,	Buddhism, Buddhist, Gotama Buddha, Songkran, monks, nuns, mantras, juzu, Mudras, suffering, lay people, priests.

R.E and World Views Year 4

Autumn Term (Christianity)

Spring Term (Buddhism)

Summer Term (Judaism)

Making Sense of Life's Experiences Stories and People	Why are angels important in Christianity? Angels take care of the people on earth and help those that are experiencing crisis. In the Bible, angels are characterized as "ministering spirits" and offer human beings consolation when it's needed most.	What are the four signs of Gotama Buddha? During his late twenties, Siddhartha is said to have encountered "four signs" which altered his life forever. These signs were: an old man, a sick man, a corpse, and a monk or a yogin (i.e. yoga or yogin refer to a man who pursues and/or teaches various religious practices).	Why is the Torah important? The Torah is considered by Jews to be the holiest part of the Tenakh. It was given by God to Moses on Mount Sinai. Because of this, many Jews see it as the direct word of God. The Torah contains the five books of Moses: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy.
Words and Beyond Celebration and expression of spirituality	What is the Bible? The Bible is not just one book, but an entire library, with stories, songs, poetry, letters and history, as well as literature that might more obviously qualify as 'religious'. The Christian Bible has two sections, the Old Testament and the New Testament. The Old Testament is the original Hebrew Bible, the sacred scriptures of the Jewish faith.	What is Buddha Day? Buddha Day / Wesak / Visakha Puja / Vaisakha takes place in May (full moon day). The festival is on this day as the Lord Buddha was born, attained enlightenment, and died. All three of these significant events fell on the same day.	What is Hanukkah? Hanukkah is the Jewish Festival of Lights. The word 'Hanukkah' means ' Dedication ' in Hebrew. It celebrates a miracle that happened in Jerusalem over 2,000 years ago.
Continuity, change and Diversity Lifestyle, rights and responsibilities	What are rites of passage? A ritual, event, or experience that marks or constitutes a major milestone or change in a person's life. Rites of passage celebrate the social movement of individuals into and out of groups or into or out of statuses of critical importance to the individual and to the community.	Who is the Dalai Lama? The Dalai Lama is the leader of the main branch of the religion known as Tibetan Buddhism. Tibetan Buddhists believe that the Dalai Lama is the god of compassion who comes to Earth to help people. Until 1959 the Dalai Lama was also considered the ruler of Tibet.	What is Shabbat? Shabbat is the most important day of worship in the home. It is celebrated on the seventh day of every week from sunset on Friday to sunset on Saturday in order to observe the commandment to remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy.
The Big Picture Beliefs and Ideas	Why is forgiveness important to Christians? Forgiveness is a very important teaching in Christianity. There are many examples of forgiveness in the Bible and Christians should try to follow these examples.	What symbols are used in Buddhism? The Bodhi tree - the tree of enlightenment The wheel of life - shows that existence is a cycle of life, death, rebirth and suffering that they seek to escape altogether. The Lotus flower - The Lotus flower is regarded in many different cultures, especially in eastern religions, as a symbol of purity, enlightenment, self-regeneration and rebirth.	Why do Jewish people believe God is One? Judaism is a monotheistic religion , which means that Jews believe there is only one God. According to Jewish belief and the Hebrew Bible, the Tenakh, God existed before creation, and Jews have a special relationship with God because of covenants they have made with him, which began with God's promise to Abraham.
A Good Life Ethics and relationships	Why did Jesus forgive others? Jesus taught that we should forgive, and Christians try to follow the path of Jesus. Forgiveness does not mean that the person who has wronged gets away with it, as they must show remorse as well. Christians believe being able to forgive lets people lead happier lives.	What is Dhamma (Dharma)? Dhamma (Dharma) is a concept generally known as 'the teachings of the Buddha.' Following Buddhist teachings gives many people meaning and understanding within their lives.	Why are the Ten Commandments important to Jewish people? The Ten Commandments still hold great significance for Jews today for many reasons: They are a guide for Jewish living today - God will judge Jews on how well they have observed these commandments - Following the commandments helps Jews to become better people today - The commandments help Jews to treat other people with respect - The commandments guide Jews to love and worship God effectively.
Influence, community, culture and power Community and Global Issues	What is a pilgrimage? A pilgrim is a person who journeys to a sacred place for religious reasons. A pilgrimage is the religious journey that they go on.	How do Buddhists live their lives? Buddhists try to follow the examples of the Buddha's life and live by his teachings.	What is a Synagogue? The building where a Jewish assembly or congregation meets for religious worship and instruction.
Big Question	Do you think being Christian is tricky?	What/Who is special to Buddhists?	What similarities does Judaism have to other religions?
Vocabulary	Christianity, Christians, angels, the Bible, rites of passage, forgiveness, pilgrimage	Buddhism, Buddhist, Gotama Buddha, Buddha day, Dalai Lama, Bodhi tree, Wheel of life, Lotus flower, Dhamma (Dharma)	Judaism, Jews, Torah, Hanukkah, Shabbat, God is One, Ten Commandments, Synagogue

R.E and World Views Year 5

Autumn Term (Christianity)		Spring Term (Judaism)		Summer Term (Islam)
Making Sense of Life's Experiences Stories and People	What is a Parable? Parables are simple stories that have a moral or spiritual lesson attached to them. Stories told by Jesus in the Gospels are examples of Parables.	How do Jews believe the world was created? Judaism shares links to Christianity and the old testament. Genesis, the first book of the Torah, explains Jewish religious teaching about how the world was created. The creation story in Genesis shows how God made the world and everything in it in six days, resting on the seventh.	What are the Qur'an and Hadith? Qur'an, the Islamic sacred book, believed to be the word of God as dictated to Muhammad by the arch-angel Gabriel and written down in Arabic. Hadith, a collection of traditions containing sayings of the prophet Muhammad which, with accounts of his daily practice (the Sunna).
Words and Beyond Celebration and expression of spirituality	How is art used in the birth of Jesus? The birth of Jesus has been depicted in art for centuries. Explore some different examples finding similarities. Children could attempt to create their own.	What is Pesach (Passover)? Passover is a celebration of spring, of birth and rebirth, of a journey from slavery to freedom, and of taking responsibility for yourself, the community, and the world. ... The Torah states that Jews are to observe Passover for seven days, beginning on the 15th of the Jewish month Nisan (usually in April).	Why is the naming of a child celebrated? In Islam, the baby is named on the seventh day by the mother and father who make a decision together on what the child should be called. They choose an appropriate name, usually Islamic, and with a positive meaning. The ceremony is called Aqiqah (Ak-kee-ka).
Continuity, change and Diversity Lifestyle, rights and responsibilities	Why is Baptism important to Christians? Baptism is a ceremony that symbolises a commitment to living a life as a Christian. Jesus was baptised in the New Testament by John the Baptist. Holy water is put on baptised people by a church leader as a symbol of being cleansed and made ready for a new life for God.	What clothing is special to Jewish people? Tefillin - A cubic black box with leather straps worn by men during morning prayer. The tallit is a large rectangular shawl made of wool, cotton or synthetic fibres. The kippah is worn during prayer services by men, and has become optional for women.	What are the Five pillars of Islam? the declaration of faith (shahada), prayer (salah), alms-giving (zakat), fasting (sawm) and pilgrimage (hajj) – constitute the basic norms of Islamic practice.
The Big Picture Beliefs and Ideas	What does the resurrection of Jesus represent? In commemorating the Resurrection of Jesus, Easter also celebrates the defeat of death and the hope of salvation.	Why is the Tanakh important? The Jewish Bible is known in Hebrew as the Tanakh, an acronym of the three sets of books which comprise it: the Pentateuch (Torah), the Prophets (Nevi'im) and the Writings (Ketuvim). These books uphold the key principles of Judaism.	Who is Allah? The word Allah is the Arabic term for God. It usually refers to the Islamic God, but in the Middle East, other religions sometimes use the same term for their God. In Islam, Allah is the main word for "God." Muslims use 99 Names of God to describe God, but "Allah" is the most common of these and means all of them.
A Good Life Ethics and relationships	What does 'Love thy neighbour as yourself' mean? The main message behind this command is that Christians should look out for all their fellow humans as much as they look out for themselves.	Does Judaism share beliefs with other religions? Aside from being monotheistic belief systems that arose in the Middle East, Christianity, Judaism and Islam have a great deal in common. There are notable similarities in notions of sacrifice, good works, hospitality, peace, justice, pilgrimage, an afterlife and loving God with all one's heart and soul.	How do Muslims show their faith? Muslims demonstrate their faith by making a declaration of faith called the Shahadah. The meaning of the shahadah is: "There is none worthy of worship except God and Muhammad is the messenger of God." and this is achieved through the teachings and practices of Muhammad .
Influence, community, culture and power Community and Global Issues	How do Christians view the natural world? Most Christians believe that God gave human beings a special responsibility within creation to cultivate it, guard it and use it wisely. This is called stewardship. Man has to work within creation and to look after it.	Why is Israel special to Jewish people? Within Judaism, Israel is the Holy Land. It is the land where the faith began – and Jerusalem is the Holy City. For Jews, Jerusalem is at the core of their faith and their world. According to Jewish tradition, all of creation began in Jerusalem.	How do Muslim families celebrate festivals? Example of celebrations for Eid: In the UK, Muslims may take the day off work or school to join in the celebrations. The festival is marked in the following ways: ... Muslims wear their best clothes, decorate their homes and spend time celebrating with their friends and family. Some Muslims may give money to the poor so that they can also enjoy the day.
Big Question	What can Christians learn from the stories of Jesus' life?	What does Judaism and Christianity have in common?	Are rules important in the Muslim faith?
Vocabulary	Christianity, Christians, parables, Baptism, resurrection, love thy neighbour, natural world	Judaism, Jews, creation, Pesach (Passover) Kippah, Tefillin, Tallit (Tallith) Tanakh, Israel	Islam, Muslims, Qur'an, Hadith, Barakah, Five pillars, Profession of Faith (shahada) , Prayer (salat) , Alms (zakat) , Fasting (sawm) , Pilgrimage (hajj) , Allah, social morals

R.E and World Views Year 6

Autumn Term (Christianity)		Spring Term (Islam)	Summer Term (Secular)
Making Sense of Life's Experiences Stories and People	Why was the birth of Jesus prophesied? The birth of Jesus is prophesied several times in the Old Testament with the concept of a Messiah being introduced. This symbolises the beginning of a new harmonious and righteous world for people. Messiah is Hebrew 'anointed one with oil'.	Who are the Messengers of Allah? The first prophet was Adam, who was also the first man, created by Allah in his image. Others were Ibrahim (Abraham), Isma'il (Ishmael), Musa (Moses), Dawud (David), Isa (Jesus) and Muhammad.	What are Humanist beliefs? Humanists believe that human experience and rational thinking provide the only source of both knowledge and a moral code to live by. They reject the idea of knowledge 'revealed' to human beings by gods, or in special books.
Words and Beyond Celebration and expression of spirituality	How is art used in the death of Jesus? The crucifixion of Christ has been depicted for hundreds of years in many different ways, taking on the styles of art work during each specific period in time.	What is Barakah? In Islam, Barakah or Baraka (Arabic: بركة "blessing") is a blessing power, a kind of continuity of spiritual presence and revelation that begins with God and flows through that and those closest to God. Baraka can be found within physical objects, places, and people, as chosen by God.	What do Humanists celebrate? Humanists value and celebrate human life, marking key moments such as births, weddings and death. Humanist weddings celebrate when two people, of any gender, agree to spend the rest of their lives together. Love and support needs to come from other people in our lives.
Continuity, change and Diversity Lifestyle, rights and responsibilities	Who are some famous followers of Christianity? Christianity is one of the most widely practised religions in the world so many famous people have been and are followers of Christianity.	What do the Five pillars of Islam mean? The five pillars – the declaration of faith (shahada), prayer (salah), alms-giving (zakat), fasting (sawm) and pilgrimage (hajj) – constitute the basic norms of Islamic practice. They are accepted by Muslims globally irrespective of ethnic, regional or sectarian differences.	What is happiness in Humanism? Humanists believe people must create their own meaning in life and this is the only life we have, therefore they place a great importance on people making themselves and others happy.
The Big Picture Beliefs and Ideas	What to Christians learn from temptation? "The Biblical meaning of temptation is 'a trial in which man has a free choice of being faithful or unfaithful to God'. By being tempted by different things Christians can learn self discipline and self restraint.	How is Allah's message spread? Traditionally it is believed that the archangel Gabriel was sent by God to spread his message to the prophets. These prophets then spread God's message to the followers of Islam. Allah's message is also spread through prayer and holy scriptures.	Why is evidence important in Humanism? At the heart of humanism is the belief that Reason, and EVIDENCE are very important. They therefore believe that SCIENCE should be used to know what is true and what is false. ... All truth is discovered by looking at the scientific evidence.
A Good Life Ethics and relationships	What are covenants in Christianity? In the Bible they are the conditional promises made to humanity by God, as revealed in Scripture. An agreement between God and the ancient Israelites, in which God promised to protect them if they kept His law and were faithful to Him.	Is respect important to Muslims? Respect for mankind is one of the basic teachings of Islam. Everyone whether of one's own religion or of any other religious tradition, whether belonging to one community or another to a friendly group or a group of strangers, is worthy of respect.	How is responsibility important in Humanism? Humanists have a duty of care to all of humanity, including future generations (mission). Humanists believe that morality is an intrinsic part of human nature based on understanding and a concern for others (connection), needing no external sanction. Humanism is rational (critical thinking).
Influence, community, culture and power Community and Global Issues	What do Christian charities do? Some work with local partners and communities to fight injustice, respond to humanitarian emergencies, campaign for change, and help people claim the services and rights they are entitled to. ... claim their rights and access services such as healthcare and education.	What social morals do Muslims hold? Collective morality is expressed in the Qur'an in such terms as equality, justice, fairness, brotherhood, mercy, compassion, solidarity, and freedom of choice.	What is the Golden Rule for Humanists? The Golden Rule is a moral which says treat others as you would like them to treat you. It is called the 'golden' rule because there is value in having this kind of respect and caring attitude for one another.
Big Question	Where can trust be seen in Christianity?	What do Islam and Christianity have in common?	Is Humanism similar to religions?
Vocabulary	Christianity, Christians, prophecy, ascension, followers, temptation, covenant, charities, trust, honesty	Islam, Muslims, Qur'an, Hadith, Barakah, Five pillars, Profession of Faith (shahada), Prayer (salat), Alms (zakat), Fasting (sawm), Pilgrimage (hajj), Allah, social morals	Humanism, Humanists, happiness, evidence, responsibility, Golden Rule