

Why Rome wasn't built in a day

Counties that became part of the Roman Empire

Boudica was an ancient Celtic queen who led a revolt against Roman rule in ancient Britain

Hadrian's Wall was built to protect Roman territory against raiding and control entry into Britain. The Wall was also a place where communities developed.

Word	Meaning
Celts	The people living in Britain before the Romans invaded.
BC or BCE	The time before the birth of Christ: "Before Christ" or "Before the Common Era".
AD	The time after the birth of Christ: "Anno Domini".
Roman Empire	The groups of countries ruled over by the Roman Emperor.
Emperor	A leader, and usually the sovereign ruler of an empire.
Centurion	A professional officer of the Roman army.
Gladiator	A Roman slave or captive forced to fight in public.
Amphitheatre	An open-air venue used for entertainment. E.g. Colosseum in Rome.
Revolt	To go against a government or ruler
Traitor	A person who betrays someone or something
Rebellion	Refusal to obey orders and fight against those in charge

Julius Caesar was a general in the Roman army, who eventually became ruler of the Roman Empire. His rule lasted for less than one year before he was assassinated.